Romance Suspense Contemporary I thought this book was going to be a great read but it wasn't The first couple of chapters were long and drawn out: I read this on my Kindle so at about 65% I started to enjoy it. Romance Suspense Contemporary When I bought this book the reviews for it weren't good at all but the first few pages led me to believe otherwise. I have now read this book twice and marked it as a favorite. This is my 2nd time reading the book and since I read it years ago and have now gotten older I now see realized how naive Vanessa was: Due to the way the book ended I knew a sequel had to be coming and it did, Romance Suspense Contemporary The book had the weirdest ending: didn't get it at all! Quite disappointing actually because it was a pretty good read up until the last line. The main character is very silly and young and finds her self in situations because she doesn't think things through. Romance Suspense Contemporary

It was a good read but it just stopped, i turned the page to continue reading but i was at the end. Luckily there's a part 2! Romance Suspense Contemporary good read but very dissapointing ending: Romance Suspense Contemporary This was pretty good but at times seemed all over the place. Sometimes I wondered what happened to intuition and instinct? Romance Suspense Contemporary LOVED IT[1]

Her baby daddy's a deadbeat. Her ex-boyfriend thinks she's a booty call. But to keep it she has to come up with money. Lots of it. I didn't know there would be a sequel at the time. Now I am looking forward to next book. This book doesn't get interesting until towards the end. Hopefully the next book in the series is better. I can't wait to get started on that one. Romance Suspense Contemporary Loved it. Part 1 and 2 . Definatinatly a page turner. I would recommend this book . Both. Romance Suspense Contemporary.
