It deals with aging so beautifully. They both loved it. I'm really enjoying it myself now. It's very different. The writing style is gorgeous. The characters are so well drawn out. It's actually really quite funny and endearing. The plot is intriguing and exciting. Extremely impressed. Lisette Auton All THE FEELS with this one . So touching. Funny and imaginative. She's tough as old boots yet so vulnerable too. I love this book because of the family relationships. . with my favourite kind of hero at its heart'.(Thanks to Net Galley for the Book).Mimi adores her wild fun full-of-life Gran. Then there is a mysterious black crow. Only Mimi seems able to see these strange things.Mimi is determined to solve the mystery. Luckily she has new friends to help: Titch and Nusrat.Now the Nitty-Gritty. With beautiful illustrations that enhance the delightful story.This book is no different. Some funny moments even made me laugh out loud. Grandad and his bacon antics spring instantly to mind.The dialogue was particularly epic throughout. It has been too long. A neat subtle play that undoubtedly works on Mimi. Gives her the heebie-jeebies. The author handled them brilliantly and openly. Some to look back on fondly others not so much. But it has been a joy to read nevertheless. Lisette Auton This book has EVERYTHING . It seems to cross genres. Is it a thriller? Titch and Nus.and I loved that.
